

BYSTANDER INTERVENTION TRAINING

Critical points

Being able to identify disrespectful behaviour and interrupt safely

How to have difficult conversations in a respectful way

Identifying subtle behaviours that may lead to disrespectful messages

Curriculum

● What we know about Bystander Intervention training

In our work with men we have identified that there are common challenges to being a bystander in everyday workplaces

That includes

- Identifying when the threshold of acceptable workplace culture is unacceptable
- Navigating conversations about 'political correctness' and 'violence against men'
- Making the link between gender inequality and men's violence against women

● How we deliver training

Informed by our values

Accountability

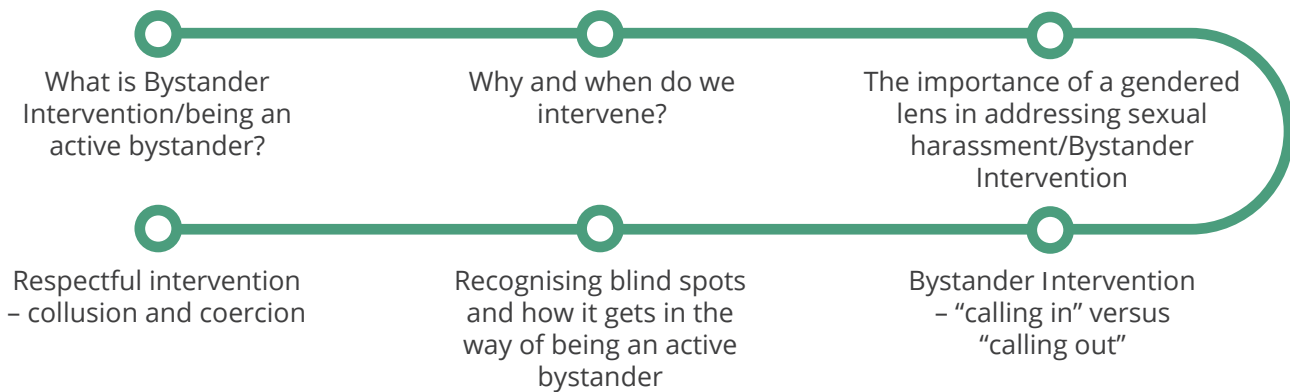

Gender Equity

Leadership

Change

Respect

Core competencies of the 3 hour training in summary

The training is interactive with discussions and activities

The three hour session is an introduction to the topic and is delivered to a group of up to 25 people for a cost of $2,000 for Melbourne metro per session

We also have a 2 day Bystander intervention program tailored for organisational leaders

*Please talk to us about regional Victoria and other states

Talk to us further about what might work for your organisation

(03) 9487 4500 • training@ntv.org.au • www.ntv.org.au